
A close-up of a person's face, split vertically down the middle. The left side of the face is a deep purple, and the right side is a bright gold. The person is wearing a dark blue or purple collared shirt. In the foreground, centered in front of the face, is a black remote control. The remote has several buttons: a 'TV' button, a microphone button (which is highlighted with a blue circular glow), a power button, a volume up/down button, a mute button, a channel up/down button, and a 'CH' button. The word 'LSU' is printed in white on the remote, positioned between the volume and channel buttons.
